HSBC Indonesia Wins Award as Best Wealth Manager in Indonesia

HSBC Indonesia (PT Bank HSBC Indonesia) has won an accolade as the Best Wealth Manager in Indonesia at the Asian Awards Asset (Triple A) organized by renowned financial publication Asia The Asset. The banking and financial services institution earned the praise in the Private Banking, Wealth Management, dan Investment category. The Asian Awards Asset is presented to corporations who are excelling in their industry, and is based on tight evaluation methodology to select the best institutions in Asia.

This honor is proof of HSBC Indonesia's expertise and consistency in providing the best services and solutions to realize the company's ambitions for clients.

Steven Suryana, Head of Wealth Management at PT Bank HSBC Indonesia, said: "We are proud of this good news that acknowledges the hard work and services that we have committed to our customers. This motivates us to continue delivering the best solutions in Indonesia in order to help clients achieve their aspirations at every stage of their life."

Blake Hellam, Director of Retail Banking and Wealth Management at PT Bank HSBC Indonesia said, "This award is another testament to our commitment in providing the best solutions to customers. As we are strengthening our presence since the transition into a local bank last year, we are now bringing world-class capabilities that can benefit more people in Indonesia. Look forward to more good news from us in the future."
