It's a hat-trick! The Asset Triple A have again named HSBC Indonesia as The Best Wealth Manager for the 3rd consecutive year.

HSBC Indonesia, once again, was awarded as Best Wealth Manager in Indonesia in the Asian Awards Asset (Triple A) award for the third time since 2018 from one of Asia's leading financial publications The Asset, in the category of Private Banking, Wealth Management, and Investment.

These awards are Asia's preeminent recognition for financial institutions that have excelled in their respective market and built upon a stringent methodology to select the best institutions operating within Asia.

Edhi Tjahja Negara, HSBC Indonesia WPB Director said: "Receiving the same award for the third time truly reflects the hard work and service of the team. Even in the midst of a challenging pandemic, our team consistently maintained the level and quality of service for customers. Truly remarkable!"

"This pride has sparked our enthusiasm to continue to provide the best solutions for all customers' financial goals at every stage of their lives", added Verawaty Zhao, Head of Wealth Management
