

Harvesting awards in Pandemic Times

After the recent award for Trade Finance, HSBC Indonesia received yet another awards in the digital and debt capital markets.

Jakarta, 30 March 2021 - And yet again, PT Bank HSBC Indonesia (HSBC Indonesia) receives of several awards for its expertise, and this time are for the digital capability and Debt Capital Markets.

The award was given by The Asset Triple A recently, after going through a rigorous assessment process.

For its digital capability, HSBC Indonesia received two awards: Best Retail Payment Project (Fast Pay) and Best Digital Wealth Management Experience.

The innovative HSBC Fast Pay has strengthened HSBC Indonesia's Wealth & Investment proposition, enabling customers to carry out daily transactions safely and practically, without requiring tokens. Meanwhile, a variety of digital Wealth Management features and programs through the HSBC Personal Internet Banking (PIB) utilizes technology to provide benefits to the rapidly growing middle segment dominated by the millennial generation. The digital Wealth Management feature intelligently communicates important information that is relevant and match their needs.

HSBC Indonesia is also honored and proud to have supported our clients in a fundraising program of which our Debt Capital Markets Indonesia transactions has recently received awards from The Asset for their achievements. The six awards are:

- Best Sovereign Bond: Republic of Indonesia USD4.3 billion SEC-registered triple-tranche bond
- Best Quasi-sovereign Bond: Perusahaan Listrik Negara/PLN (Indonesia electricity company) USD1.5 billion dual-tranche bond
- Best Bank Capital Bond: Bank Tabungan Negara USD300 million Basel III-compliant tier 2 capital securities
- Best Corporate Bond: Tower Bersama Infrastructure USD350 million unrated senior notes
- Best New Bond: Hutama Karya USD600 million government-guaranteed bond
- Best Liability Management: Pertamina USD1.45 billion dual-tranche senior notes and any-and-all tender offer

This recognition is in addition to the regional awards we received as The Best Bond Adviser, The Best Debt Adviser, Best Green Adviser, and Best Liability Management Adviser.

President Director of PT Bank HSBC Indonesia François de Maricourt said, “We are honored and proud to win this prestigious recognition. This reflects not only our expertise and collaborative efforts of our team, but also our commitment to customer centricity.”
