Jakarta, 29 July 2021 – HSBC Indonesia responded to the crisis brought by the second wave of the Covid-19 pandemic by mobilizing donations to provide oxygen supplies to help over 2,000 Covid-19 patients in vulnerable communities in Jabodetabek, Bandung and Cimahi through Rumah Zakat.

In addition, through Wahana Visi Indonesia, HSBC Indonesia is also providing cash assistance to over 600 households in vulnerable communities in Jakarta who are self-isolating at home due to Covid-19 to cover their basic daily needs such as food, shelter, health supplies, utilities. This program will run for the next 6 months.

Francois de Maricourt, President Director, PT Bank HSBC Indonesia, said, “Low income families are often more vulnerable to the impacts of this health crisis. As part of our commitment to support the communities where we operate, we are partnering with Rumah Zakat and Wahana Visi Indonesia to provide much-needed oxygen supplies and cash assistance to help ease the burden on vulnerable families who are severely impacted by the pandemic.

Francois added that the bank is also opening up opportunities for its 3000 employees to channel personal donations to the two charity organizations, Rumah Zakat and Wahana Visi Indonesia, to further fund the programs.

At the start of the pandemic, HSBC Indonesia donated more than Rp. 15 billion to provide pandemic relief and recovery measures, including the provision of immediate medical equipment, food supplies, and economic resilience initiatives through several charity organizations.
