HSBC Indonesia and PT BNP Paribas AM Launch BNPP Global Tech Titans Mutual Fund to Expand Customer Investment Diversification into the Global Technology Sector

According to the HSBC's Affluent Investor Snapshot 2024 report, affluent investors in Indonesia have the highest product diversification compared to investors from other respondent countries. In addition, 57% of them plan to expand their portfolio abroad.

Jakarta, August 13, 2024 – PT Bank HSBC Indonesia ("HSBC Indonesia"), together with PT BNP Paribas Asset Management ("PT BNP Paribas AM"), today announced the launch of a new mutual fund product that focuses on investing in the world's technology giants, while adhering to the principles of sharia investment, namely BNP Paribas DJIM Global Technology TITANS 50 Syariah USD ("BNPP Global Tech TITANS").

The launch of this mutual fund is HSBC Indonesia's response to the aspirations of affluent investors in Indonesia who plan to diversify their investment to other markets. According to the HSBC's Affluent Investor Snapshot 2024¹ report, out of 500 Indonesian affluent investors respondents, on average, hold 5.4 investment products in their portfolio. This number is the highest compared to investors from other respondent countries. Also, 57% plan to expand portfolio diversification by investing in different markets.

Lanny Hendra, Wealth and Personal Banking Director, HSBC Indonesia, said, "We are pleased to partner with BNP Paribas Asset Management to launch the BNPP Global Tech TITANS mutual fund to HSBC Premier customers. It is part of our commitment to providing investment product choices that meet the personal preferences and support their desired portfolio diversification goals. The product that we launched will be an option for our customers to capture the growth potential of the global technology sector, particularly in the artificial intelligence (AI) and automation, while still adhering to the principal of sharia investment."

Maya Kamdani, President Director of PT BNP Paribas Asset Management, expressed her support, "We are pleased to partner with HSBC Indonesia in providing long-term investment solutions that can complement the needs of their affluent investor customers. We offer a global technology theme through index mutual funds to provide
