HSBC Indonesia Appoints Stuart Rogers as new President Director

JAKARTA, 6 November 2025 – PT Bank HSBC Indonesia (“HSBC Indonesia”) today announces the appointment of Stuart Rogers as its new President Director, effective 2 November 2025.

Stuart brings over 25 years of experience in banking in Asia Pacific, which includes Australia, Hong Kong, Sri Lanka & Singapore and 9 years in Indonesia previously. Stuart most recently served as the Regional Head of International Markets for HSBC Commercial Banking based in Singapore.

As a seasoned banker, Stuart has a strong track record in driving strategic growth, risk management, people development and organization transformation, which include leading the strategic integration of PT Bank Ekonomi Raharja Tbk with the HSBC branch in Indonesia into the current PT Bank HSBC Indonesia. This extensive experience brings a regional perspective and an appreciation of the strategic challenges and opportunities facing the banking industry, locally and globally, in general and HSBC in particular.

“I would like to congratulate Stuart on his appointment as President Director of PT Bank HSBC Indonesia. I look forward to working closely with him for the next stage of the Bank’s growth and development to be the preferred international bank in Indonesia,” says Martin Haythorne, President Commissioner, PT. Bank HSBC Indonesia.

In his new capacity, Stuart will lead a total of almost 2,300 HSBC staff in Indonesia with presence in 12 cities¹ across Indonesia. HSBC started its operations in Indonesia in 1885 to facilitate sugar trade in Batavia. HSBC Indonesia has been providing universal banking services for corporate, institutional and retail customers in Indonesia, and was recently awarded as Best Wealth Manager for the 8th consecutive time by The Asset Triple A, Best Bank for Sustainable Finance and Best Trade Finance Bank in Indonesia by Euromoney.
